Capital over $105,000—in Cash and Premium Notes. Title Company offers unrivalled facilities for the inart. Trance of Buildings and Personal Property against fire. The advantages offersh, are security beyond the reach ofeir-cumisatoes, as the real estate insured is by law bound for the sesses ment made to cover losses beyond this power of sustained. Every person insured is a member of the Company, and entitled to one wite. The cost of insurance does not exceed one-third as much as in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incomparable case with which losses are sottled. During the last five years, this Company have issued 2500 Policies, and made but three assessments at a cost to the property insured, not receding two mills on the dollar. Its busiless; is principally condined to this State.

March 15th, writes as tonows:

The defect of the bill granting large grants of inod to Wiscoben, to aid in the construction of the Rock River Yalley Road, has grievously disappointed a hest of gentlemen here who were interested in the scheme, including several members of the press, who held considerable contingent interest therein. Indeed, it is pretty well monetaiced that $200,000 of the stock of this road has been "laying around loosely" here for some time just, to be divided up among the various parties whose sid was employed to procure the massage of the scheme. assege of the scheme.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser of Thursday iast. -peaking upon the same topic, says :

The rote of the House of Representatives by which the Wisconsin land plunder bill was finally killed, must be generally regarded with satisfaction throughout the country. It may be assumed that not a single project of like character will receive the senction of Congress, for some time to come. A few meritorious applications are pending, but it is better that they should be postponed for the present, than that such schemes as that rencovered by Walker & Co. should prevail.

The Slave Rescue.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser closes its present of the rescue of the alleged slave Glover. in this city, with the following remarks:

this city, with the following remarks:

"The anticlavery feeling is generally understood to be strong in Wiscousia, and the arrest of a furprire since there ander any circumstances, would meatly excite the people; but it is very doubtful whether the incidents detailed would have occurred but for the pendency of the Kansas and Nebraska bills in Congress, and the strong and almost unanimous indignation of the North at the proposition embedded in those bills to abrogate the Missouri Compromise. The North believes that it is incacherously dealt with in this matter, and so believing, it will not be very zealous to aid in dissouri Compromise. The work there is the acherously dealt with in this matter, and so believing, it will not be very zealous to aid in enforcing a law like that for the reclamation of fugitive slaves, always repuguant to its sentiment, and only sustained by a sense of what was due to solution compacts between the two great sections of the country. When, as now, the South shows a willingness to disregard and annul a compact that for more than thirty years all considered seared and inviolable, and which none affect to violate till within a few weeks, it can lead by the expected that the North will vigorously endote, for the benefit of the South, a law hateful to a large proportion of northern freemen and grateful to none. Such being the general feeling, it may be considered certain that if the Missouri Comprosoiles be declared null and void, as is now proposed, slave catching North will not prove a resource retire business."

The Assembly then went into committee of the whole and ground out no less than forty-siz bills, odered them to a third reading and had leave to musing to hear the opinions and sentiments expressed, both in and out of session, upon this subect. The discussion upon the proposition to tax property out of the state which happens to be owned by men in the state, has accidentally rubbed open the legislative eye to the whole policy of taxing credits or mere evidences or shadows of property, as if they were the property itself; and if all men wouldbe governed by their reason, instead of their projudices, the whole system would give place to a more rational and just poli-

In other words, if a man keeps his proper. ty in his own hands, it need be taxed but once but if he places it in the hands of another, it, the property and receives an income from it. We it. That is as good a reason as can be given .-Why not carry out the principle and tax a mans farm because it is property, and tax the owner and occupant the same amount because he owns it and derives an income from it?

Another says, true it is double taxation, but centage of the tax. But can my worthy friend tell me what difference it would make to him whether he paid a tax of one per cent on one undred dollars worth of property, and nothing else, or one mill per cent on one hundred dollars worth of property, and nine hundred dollars worth of nothing. I can tell him how it might make a difference to him. If he were taxed for $100 worth of property and $900 worth of nothing and his neighbor were taxed for $100 worth of property and had none of this nothing to be taxed, would have to pay ten times more tax on the same property than his neighbor would, Will be then insist upon taxing some men for nothing hat others may pay less tax on their property Another wishes to reach such men as Hercules Donsman who carries his money all off out of the State and invests it in St. Louis, and even beast hat Wisconsin cannot tax him for the property hus invested, and he would like to show him and all guilty of like offences that we can tax their property, whether it is in this State or any other. good deal stronger than Hercules before we collect but an example of the effect of the egregious blunder and suicidal policy now under review in the Assembly. EXAMINATION OF S. M. BOOTH, For Aiding in the Rescue of John Glover a Fugitive Slave from Missouri.

REPORE WINFIELD SMITH, U. S. COMMISSIONER.

MILWAUEEE, March 21-2 P. M. Glover on the 11th day of this month, on a warrant issued by Judge Miller, brought him to Milwankee, lodged him in Milwausce jail on Saturday morning about 1/4 after 8 o'clock. About an hour afterwards went back to the jail and saw raised; admitted as evidence.)

I saw the defendant, S. M. Booth, on that day was in the morning-a conversation passed bekiduapped a negro-I said I had not; he then that time I didn't see Mr. Booth. asked me if I knew anything about a man being kideapped at Racine, I answered him that I did'nt Racine, that the Marshal had a dep. in Racine, received from Racine. I did nt read the commuication-I think it was in pencil-he stated that he had rec'd a telegraph stating that a man had been kidnapped from Racine, he looked at me a lew minutes and stated that I could'nt very well be there and here at the same time; he then turned on his heel and left me. The next time I lown E. Water Street, crying out for the people to assemble at the Court House, I can't remember his exact words. I think this was in the afternoon a little before two. The first time I went up to the jail, about 10 o'clock, there was a crowd I about 100 people; I went up again and saw Mr. Arnold between 12 and 20 clock. Very soon after that, I passed through the Court House yard; there was a large crowd there and somebody was speaking. When the defendant was riding through the streets he called out to all good citi zens who did'nt want to be made slave catchers to assemble at the Court House. His manner in going through the street, was like any man calling on the people-he called out loud at the top of his voice. I then't recollect that I saw him after that. The man's name that I arrested and put in jail was Joshua Glover, a fugitive from Missouri owned by Mr. Garland. I have not been to the jail since.

Gross Examined by Mr. Paine :- I have no personal knowledge that Mr. Garland owned Glover, I arrested Glover about 4 miles this side of Racine; he was in a house or shanty, I hesides myself, there were three colored men in the house; the man Glover made resistance to he arrest; he got possession of a revolver be-I saw him present the pistol to his head-Glover tried to get it away from him. I don't know what position the pistol was in when he grabbed it, it was in Mr. Garland's hand; the the time of Glover snatching the pistol from Garland, he had made no effort against either of us. I don't know that the pistel was pointed at him at all; I didu't see it till Glover snatched it Glover didn't get the pistol out of Garland' I struck him once with a hand cuff, I think on the side of the head; I don't know who else struck him, he was struck with a cane or a whip, think it was with the bull and; at this time be had hold of the pistol. There was no time but what both of them had hold of the pistol, till I got hold of his hand and secured it with a hand

The blow that I gave him I suppose cut his ered men did anything at the time of the arrest, was just called on. Glover had no coat on, he was playing cards. We handcuffed hire and put him in the wagen, wrapry here in town, it had no cover, After we ar- I was standing in the crowd listening to Mr rested him we started towards Racine, we made a crooked road by accident. The time of the arrest was between 7 and 8 o'clock in the evening and we got back to Milwaukee at 8 the next morning. There was dressing put on the woulds some one put some liquor on it, we were all night coming home. I told the jailer; to take his handcuffs off. I said something about not noising it about. We did'nt go to Judge Miller before goshould be liable if he escaped or was rescued, but Judge Miller did not tell me to keep the matter of the arrest secret at any time; Glover could He made a speech on the Mark Authory order be seen while we were driving through the city; and counselled them not to break the law. Mr he slept part of the time coming up; the only Paine. Well, John you were a little on the Mark irons on him were a pair of handcuffs. I dont Anthony order that afternoon, were you not ! remember that there were any instructions given to the jailor to dress his wounds; I think Garland No sir. [Great laughter.] told the jailor he would be up in a few minutes and see to him; there was no arrangement be tween me and Garland to take the man off withto bring him before Judge Miller; Glover was willing to go back with Garland. The examination was set down for two o'clock; Judge Miller remarked that it was not right to keep a man in jail without an examination, as he might be entitled to be set at liberty; I never received anything from Garland, directly or indirectly, as a fee or any other way, nor any promise of indemnification; I can't remember the exact language impression on his mind that I didut know anything about it; Judge Miller never advised me ant enough without telling it around the streets. 11th of this worth. There was a negro put in Winneconne Bridge is also free; i. e. it was seen the jail some time on the 11th. I was'nt there sailing down stream. It is thought that the when he was put in—there was a warrant left there. Mr. Cotton told me he put him there.

I was in the jail when Glover was rescued-there was a very large crowd gathered about there-a great the ice. part of the time they were in the Court House yard-the subject of the conversation among the people was, finding fault that the negro was imprisoned. The jail was broken open about 6 c'-clock in the afternoon. The jail door was broken open, the walls giving way-they came in and took out the negro-the bolts of the door were broken off, and by pounding with a piece of timber, they got in—there were a great many people there. I didn't see Mr. Booth at that side of the jail when it was broken. Cross-examined .- There was, I should think fifteen hundred people in the Court House yard. when Mr. Booth was speaking. Walter S. Everts (sworn)-I was at the office (Clerk of Circuit Court,) saw defendant several times on the 11th. I was there at the time that they say a man was taken out of jail. Mr. Booth saw him, he was on horseback riding up and was there about 1/2 an hour before that time, don't know what he said. I heard him speak to the crowd that day, be made a speech about the arrest of the man, and his being knocked down. I heard bim read the resolutions, and speak about the manner of his arrest. I think I saw him about three times in and out of our office, he came in there to write, wanted some conveniences to write. I believe he did'nt say what he wanted to write about. I think this was in the forencon, he came in a second time. He did'nt conrerse about anything in particular—I believe be ead a preamble or a resolution to Gen. Paine, they related to the arrest of Glover I believe.

The cross examination of this witness contined o the witnesses recollection of having heard Mr. Booth say that he wanted to draw up resolutions himself, as others might draw some that would not be prudent. Witness stated that he did'nt hear any such conversation.

Charles S. Kesler (sworn)-Am Dep. Clerk of Board Supervisors, was in the office a week ago Saturday, saw Mr. Booth about there on that day, I think between 2 and 3 o'clock. Up to was wrong to resist the law, but that if they all felt as he did, he know what they would do. I think this was about 5 or 6 o'clock; about three minutes after the speech was ended, the iail was broken open. I lost sight of Mr. Booth immediately after the end of his speech, and didn't see him again, till at the time the slave was rescued, he was then on horseback galloping by the side of the waggon, which had the slave Cross Examined. It has every prospect of becoming a useful town, the center of which will be the place of business. A village has already. commenced. Some locations are taken up and buildings erected now, and applications are made almost daily; lots will be sold very reasonably The Milwaukee river passes directly through the center of the town, which furnishes waterpower sufficient for two mills; a saw mill and a grist mill. The saw mill we have, and the grist mill is to be built this spring and summer. We have a good framed school-house and one store at present, and the rest we will tell you about in our next. And now, gentle reader, after consideting this carefully, do not imagine to yoursel some Paradise or Mount Moriah, as you may be somewhat mistaken, both in grandeur and retireout an examination; my warrant commanded me the above report, which, owing to the noise in the come and observe for your own satisfaction, and then should you wish, the owners will share heartily with you for the money.

very numerously attended. We find the pro-ceedings reported in the Chicago papers of Monday. The following among other resolutions were adopted.

Whereas, The present attempt of the South to introduce Slavery into Nebraska territory and thereby to increase the preponderance of the slaveholding interest in the union is not a solitary measure, but a logical consequence of similar previous acts, and an ominous prophesy of further attacks upon Northern liberty.

And whereas forther, the Damocratic party and its leaders have by their sycophercy to the South.

Resolved, That we deem those the worst emiss of liberty and republicanism, who by the liying pretonce of upholding the sovereignty of the people in introducing Slavery in the territories of the U.S. make the attempt to import Southern aristocracy and Southern contempt of free labor, into the North and thereby endanger the liberty-loving and independent spirit of the North.

Decisions important to Shiffers,—The Supreme Cour of Michigan has had some cases before it sprowing out o alleged breach of countact on the part of Shippers. In two of the cases the contract between the parties required the shipment by sail, and they were in fact shipped by steam and while being so transported, they were look by a collision, in which the shippers were not to blame. The question involved was, whether, as transportation by stear is safe and more expeditions, the shippers did not full their contract-seconding to its spirit and intent by stear shipment, or whether they were restricted to shippers were hound to forward, as important that the shippers were bound to forward, the goods it he mode specified in their contracts, and that they arrestricted to it.

A New Institution.—We were shown on Saturday, a new description of bills, just issued in this city, and evidently more on the bogus principle than the famed "wild cats" of Michigan. The bills are of the denomination of $500, on the "Bank of Nebraska" "secured by public pledge against foreigners"—with a promise to pay on deniand, at the Slave Pen, in Washington, Fivz Hundren Dollars for every White or Black Slave delivered in Nebraska. General Pierce is signed as President of the "natitution," and Steve. A. Double lash Secretary.

The Vignette consists of a wise looking oxi, holding in his beak a seroll, bearing the words—"Nebrasks, Land of Liberty." On the left is a military character standing on a negro, who is labelled "Baltimore Platform." On the right is a slave driver, designated as "The Little Giant" with one of his imps staring at him, his neck ornamented with an iron band, from which is suspended several links of chain.

These bills have not been freely circulated, as yet, it being necessary to send it to Washington, for countersigning before they will become legal currency—Ohicago Tribune.

A special dispatch from Washington, which we publish I youteday, eays:

"The Western members, it is reported, are determined to kill the New York Assay Office appropriation, in revenge for Cutting's vote against the Wisconsin Land bill, after it had been anended of his 1000.

There is extracted information of our correspondent, in the second word of the foregoing. The Wisconsin member or members is certainly meant. The West has to hostility to New York, or to the Assay Office recently established here for the common benefit of the whole country for the Common benefit of the whole country with Calibraia. The young and growing State of Wisconsin, to whose legitimate and morestly managed Roads this City has not failed here he helper hard, has to cause of hostility, with ing State of Wissonsin, to whose regitting and failed housestly mininged Roads this City has not failed to he helping hand, has no cause of hostility, with the helping hand, has no cause of hostility, with the helping hand, has no cause of hostility, with the helping hand, has no cause of hostility, and the more of her Representatives, Mr. Cutting, are ignored action Land Grant, brought before Longers and pressed through the Senate, as the preferabled hause of Wisconsin. This Groot was tabled in the House on Tuesday on the more of Mr. George W. Jones, of Tenizosar, a Western member, and of the same party sympathies with the selfish and unscrupulous man who originated the Road for the exclusive benefit of which the Grant was designed. Tho motion to transfix the bill to the table was made by Mr. Fardkner, of Virginia, another Democratic member. All that Vr. Cutting did was to move an amendment, which should, in some slight messure at least, prevent the entire diversion of the grant to private speculation, by requiring a townty miles section of the Road to be finished defore title should accrue to the Company. This ise had a right to do, fearing the bill would go though the House in a more unguarded form.

It was stickly parliamentary for a member in the nanomity to undeavor to modify a mischief which he felt was about to be perpetuted upon the public domain of the United States. That he survedded in doing so, and then voted against the bill, was regarily proper. And that he was to give affered thereby to the frotty member from Wasconsin, who had suddenly soid out his interest in the grant, he probably knew as well before as after the tenut. If the new establishment is in each of the wist only by the breath of the Wisconsin momenter while the swing to the reasonstances, at Washington, of a highly respectable delegation from his own State—the sooner the fact is known, the testing the wine on. If the new establishment is in each of the Wisconsin moves to make the strong the free the heads of the Wisconsin have the s

We had the saces saive defeats of the Minnesota and Wiscowin Lind bills, under the circumstances of the two cases, as a favorable onen for a more elevated tone of legislation in the House of Reput-entatives than we have seen manifested by the inset; action of the Senate. The Minnesota idd was strengled by its own friends, because the alternate sections were voted to the old States. The House determined, though by a very close sect, that the Grant could be had on no other terms.

The principle of eigent could be had on no other terms.

The principle of eigentaging Internal Improvements by the General Government being practically acted upon, though refused a formal recognition in the previous land grants to railroads, the Representatives from the old States claimed to share in the policy. The public domain is a common property, and if to be divided into railroad grants, then the division should be made a common one. In the other case, the measure proposed was partial, selfish, and most loosely granted, it was a Congressional job of the worst species; not demanded by the Legislature of Misconsin, although attempted in her name, and not acceptable to the railroad interests of the State, which it pretended to favor. The House did right to vote the bill to the table, and it is only an additional proof of the justice of the decisions that the prime mover should indulge his impactent intents against an interest which he has good reason to know contributed to his deficant. The feels that his would like to have some other metric to "kill the New-York Assay Office" than the vote of Mr. Cutting, he is heartily well-caster to seek it in the condemnation of his mammath jub by the New York press.—N. Y. Times, 1672.

The Empress of France has a rival! Louis has been smitten with the charms of an English lady named Sancad. At the last bull given at the Italians—which, by the way, cost the city $25,000—the Empress has forbidden her admission to the Tuilheries! A letter-writer in describing the conqueror (Miss Smead) says:
She is the most thoroughly, perfectly beautiful woman! I have ever seen, either in Europe or America. Her type is altogether English; she has the fair complexion, the light hair, the blue eyes, which are characteristic of the nation and a trifle of that embrapoint which a lady may have to advantage, even at twenty-one.—In form she is faulties, and in manners she is a model. Every one seemed to know the cheurastances of the late flirtation at the palace, and consequently when she walked she was followed by a retinue; when she extopped she was the centre of a dense groupe of worshippers, and when she sat, all circulation was rendered impossible, and the passages to and from her were blocked up hopeless-ly. She bore it with unbroken equaninity, hardly noticing that she was the object of an unusual tenser; she had learned that a beautiful woman la doubtly beautiful when maffectedly simple. I The Empress of France has a rival! Louis in nothing that the was the object of an understanding the satisfied when unaffectedly simple. I have herer dreamed of such wooderful perfection; certainly no painter has ever created, from the deaths of his imagination, and out of the unreal auggestions of an inspired fancy, a face so adorably lovely; there is not another like it, except because, in Circassia, or at Baltimore. Heigh ho! The Eupr as has good reason to be jealous; ahe herself is far less handsome.

GRAMBY CANAL—Yesterday the first canal house for the season arrived with Wheat Corn and Oats. More are soon to follow, and the rushing in of produce thrugh this avenue of commerce will impart life and activity to business which has long been wanting. There will be a great demand for warshouse room here should the Straits open late, as Corn will pour in like a flood during the next four weeks.—Ohiosop Press, of Monday.

BUFFALO EAGLEIRON WORKS CO. Propose to pay Particular attention to Architectural Iron Work. W E are prepared to Manufacture IRON FRONT'S for Stores and Public Buildings, with the Patent Fire Proof Rolling Shutters. Patent Fire Proof Rolling Shutters.

These Shutters are the same that are now so generally used in New York, and may be put in any Window, Small or Largo, and if arranged before erection of the building, may be used without in the least affecting the style of Architecture. They make the only perfect Fire Proof Shutters, and do not appear to the eye when rolled up.

When dusired we will furnish the Plan for Store Fronts, (with or without the Patent Shutter), with estimate for the Cost of the work finished ready for delivery. To our Western friends we think this arrangement will be desirable, for they thus are enabled to know without experiment what the Front is to be, and what it is to cost.

When the Patent Shutters are used we will fornish a man to superintend, the erection of the Front and the seiling of the Shutter. to superintend the orection of the Shutter.
